

Klein Sandfontein Kennels
Caledon, PO Box 219
Western Cape, South Africa
kennels@kleinsandfontein.co.za
087 941 2716 / 082 861 1618

General rules:

1. Proof of pet's vaccinations, including Kennel cough vaccination must be submitted on arrival
2. Vaccinations must be administered at least 30 days prior to arrival.
3. Failure to present proof of vaccinations will result in forfeiture of the kennel and deposit.
4. Own bedding and toys (if any) must be brought along.
5. Small breed dogs must be accompanied by a harness.
6. All pets must be treated with a tick and flea product at least 1 week prior to arrival. NeXguard proves effective for 30 days and Bravecto for 90 days.
7. We reserve the right to take any pet to our veterinarian, with or without the owner's consent, should we in our discretion deem it necessary.
8. The veterinary account is payable by the pet owner and an additional fee of R200 will be charged to defray our costs.
9. A signed copy of this agreement has to be returned or handed in on the said date of arrival. Failing to do so, Klein Sandfontein will reserve the right to admission.

Kennel times:

1. Weekdays from 7h00 until 18h00.
2. Weekends and public holidays from 8h00 until 10h00 and 16h00 until 18h00.
3. Should you not be able to keep to these times, special arrangements can be made in advance.

Costs for dogs:

1. R 120.00 is charged per day for a dog in a single kennel.
2. Should your pet require the administration of medication, an additional fee of R5/day will be levied.

Costs for cats:

1. R 70.00 is charged per day for a cat housed in a single kennel.
2. Should your pet require administration of medication an additional fee of R5/day will be levied.

Injury to staff

The pet owner shall be held responsible for any injury caused by his/her pet to a staff member and will defray any medical expenses so incurred.

Indemnity

Though Klein Sandfontein Kennels endeavour to take every possible measure to assure your animal of a comfortable and safe stay, Klein Sandfontein shall not be held liable for the loss of your pet howsoever arising.

.....
Name & Surname

.....
Signature